

Mary C. North Called By Death

Mrs. Mary Caroline North, 59, widow of Arthur North, died at her home in Midway last Friday after a heart attack.

A native of Vernal, Mrs. North was born July 5, 1885, a daughter of Richard and Mary Jane Beelar Blackley. She was married March 2, 1905, in the Salt Lake L D S temple. Mr. North died 14 years ago.

An active member of the I church, Mrs. North had served the presidency of the M. Primary association.

She is survived by eight sons and daughters: Mrs. Lela Reeve, Mrs. Veda Montgomery, Wallace B., Howard A., Raymond M. and Nelma North, all of Midway; Mrs. Rintha Burns, Park City, and Pvt. Garth D. North, U. S. Army.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Midway First L D S ward chapel by Bishop Albert Kohler.

Mary C. North Called By Death

Mrs. Mary Caroline North, 59, widow of Arthur North, died at her home in Midway last Friday after a heart attack.

A native of Vernal, Mrs. North was born July 5, 1885, a daughter of Richard and Mary Jane Beelar Blackley. She was married March 2, 1905, in the Salt Lake L D S temple. Mr. North died 14 years ago.

An active member of the I church, Mrs. North had served the presidency of the M. Primary association.

She is survived by eight sons and daughters: Mrs. Lela Reeve, Mrs. Veda Montgomery, Wallace B., Howard A., Raymond M. and Nelma North, all of Midway; Mrs. Rintha Burns, Park City, and Pvt. Garth D. North, U. S. Army.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Midway First L D S ward chapel by Bishop Albert Kohler.